

ALARM AND PANIC IN TAFT CAMP SMASHING DEFEATS

Shouting to Keep Up Courage, Managers Going After the South.

On every hand in Washington today there were evidences of alarm and panic in the Taft camp over the results of the election of smashing defeats for the President last week, especially in Illinois and Pennsylvania.

Shouting to keep up their courage, and declaring they are not yet defeated, the Taft managers are desperately trying to keep the South from going headlong to Roosevelt; to keep Ohio, the home State of the President, from dealing him a blow that will be even more humiliating than the one administered by Illinois and Pennsylvania, and to prevent heavy losses elsewhere.

Chairman McKinley of the Taft campaign management realizes that the tide has set against his candidate and that the efforts to save the President from being swamped are well-nigh hopeless.

The most desperate efforts are planned to save him. S. O. S. calls for help are being sent out to every quarter. Meantime, a lot of the slenderly held Taft followers are being convinced the ship is going down and are getting ready to take to the lifeboats.

Leaders in Panic.

The state of mind of the Taft leaders over the South is literally one of panic. This panic is intensified by the fact that Colonel Roosevelt is going to make a campaign in the South. He is going there personally, where he is known and liked, and where he is no less popular than he is in the West and North.

It is easy to imagine what will happen. With the Southern delegates gone from him, the President will have no more show of nomination than he has had never entered the race.

That all the herculean efforts of the Taft Administration to force, through use of Federal patronage and by other methods, the selection of Taft delegates in the South, would come practically to nothing because of the moral effect of the tremendous slumps in Illinois and Pennsylvania, was asserted today by the Roosevelt leaders. They said that the visit of Colonel Roosevelt to the South would clinch a victory that was already practically gained.

Colonel Roosevelt is now heading for Nebraska, where the Presidential primaries are to be held April 15. In spite of the fact that the progressive strength there is a split between Roosevelt and La Follette, the indication points to the fact President Taft will get a small vote in that State.

Crisis Is Reached.

Even the close friends of the President are admitting today that a crisis has been reached in his political fortunes. They say that the situation cannot, that at no time in the campaign opened has the outlook for him seemed so black. In the public statements put out by Chairman McKinley there is an assumption of courage and an insistence that President Taft will be nominated anyhow. Such assertions, however, belie the numerous evidences of gloom and panic to be seen about Taft headquarters and in the Taft camp.

The latest returns from Pennsylvania bear out the earlier news of the crushing nature of the defeat of the President. President Taft will not get to exceed nine delegates out of the seventy-six in the State. In fact, there is good reason to believe he will not get over six and that Colonel Roosevelt will have seventy out of the seventy-six delegates.

Of great national importance, too, is the fact that the completed returns show the smashing blow struck at the Penrose machine. Senator Penrose has been repudiated and probably will be driven out of the Senate. Indications this morning were that that eminent reactionary, Congressman John Dalzell, had been beaten for renomination in his district.

Senator Dixon, manager of the Roosevelt campaign, renewed his declarations today that the result in Pennsylvania had settled the fight and that Roosevelt would be triumphantly nominated and elected.

Among the Taft leaders, it was said that the hardest kind of work would be undertaken in Nebraska and Massachusetts.

Roosevelt Itinerary.

The details of the swing of Colonel Roosevelt into the South were given out this morning by Senator Dixon. Colonel Roosevelt starts on his trip West today, and will speak in Nebraska two days, Wednesday and Thursday. He will speak in Omaha and Lincoln, among other places. He will then go to Kansas, speak at Wichita Thursday night, and then to Oklahoma, where he will speak at Muskogee and Tulsa, and then will swing into the South.

Little Rock, Ark., will be one of the most important stops on the trip. Colonel Roosevelt is promising a big meeting there. Roosevelt sentiment in the State is strong. From Arkansas, Colonel Roosevelt will head for North Carolina, going through Alabama and Georgia. After speeches in North Carolina, he will return home.

Congressman Wilson of Illinois will travel with Colonel Roosevelt and be in charge of the trip. The trip will be a tour of the South, and the Roosevelt management is so reassured by the Taft defeat that they expect to make a strong showing there in spite of the Penrose machine.

So far as North Carolina is concerned, that State is hopelessly lopsided for Roosevelt. The talk about there being a division of delegates in North Carolina between the Roosevelt and Taft forces, Senator Dixon characterized this morning as ridiculous. He said the Associated Press had carried such a story, which he declared was absurd on its face.

In North Carolina.

"North Carolina," said he, "is the strongest Roosevelt State on the Union. Out of fifteen counties that have voted, we have 137-5 delegates and the Taft forces have 2-5. The other fellows have nothing worth mentioning and how could there be a division?"

The fact the South is ready to break from President Taft is confirmed in various ways. Not the least significant of these is the numerous letters coming into the office of Senator Dixon from delegates in the South supposed to be instructed for Taft. These delegates are saying they are not for Taft, that they were deceived by the McKinley management, who told them Roosevelt would not run, and that they do not consider themselves bound by their so-called instructions. A score of delegates from the South have written Senator Dixon to this effect and assuring him they will vote for Roosevelt at Chicago.

"We've got 'em whipped to a finish," declared Senator Dixon today as he scanned some of the letters and telegrams on his desk.

The latest returns show that 70 of the 75 delegates from the State are for Roosevelt. Three of the delegates supported posed to be for Taft have come over to Roosevelt, and pledged support to him. Senator Dixon was advised today. This brings the total up to 70.

Getting on Band Wagon.

Many evidences are accumulating that the band wagon movement away from Taft and to Roosevelt has begun, and that it will soon assume the proportions of a tremendous sweep over Roosevelt which will sweep out even the talk of compromise which some of the anti-Roosevelt people have been indulging in, seeing that the Taft cause was hopeless.

Word came today from Illinois that Roosevelt leaders in Chairman McKinley's home town, Champaign, had assumed charge of things, and taken over control formerly exercised by McKinley. This points the fact McKinley himself is likely to be crushed completely in the Illinois uprising against the President and against Lorimer, who, with his Lincoln League, has been supporting the President.

Taft Won Only Nine Delegates in Penn State on Saturday

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 15.—While returns from Saturday's State-wide Presidential preference primary were still incomplete today, it was assured that Taft won only nine delegates—seven in Philadelphia and two in Lancaster.

The remaining sixty-seven, including the twelve delegates to be elected by the Republican State convention, will be for Roosevelt.

The Roosevelt-Oliver organization received a severe blow in every quarter of the State, Oliver especially getting a crushing defeat in the western section.

John Dalzell, "champion of protection," who has been in Congress for twenty-six years, was retired to private life by M. Clyde Kelly.

Delegates Arrive for New Haven Convention

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 15.—The advance guard of delegates arrived in New Haven today to attend the Republican State convention, which will elect delegates-at-large to the national convention at Chicago. The State convention will meet here tomorrow, and will remain in session two days.

The Taft supporters claim that the President will have a walk-over in the convention. The Roosevelt men are making no definite claims, but it is known that, with National Committee Chairman Charles F. Brooks and several other prominent leaders, they are only a lukewarm support of the President, the Roosevelt followers entertain a hope that something may develop in the convention that will at least bring about an unqualified delegation.

Columbus W. Lewis Dies in Baltimore

Word has been received in Washington of the death of Columbus Washington Lewis in Baltimore Saturday morning. Mr. Lewis was father of Police Justice James W. Lewis, of Baltimore.

Mr. Lewis was born in Montgomery county, Md., seventy-seven years ago, and at the age of twenty came to the District of Columbia, where he was engaged in the trucking business for several years. Later he went to Baltimore, where he had been prominently connected in business interests for many years.

To Open Lighthouse.

NEW YORK, April 15.—What is said to be the finest lighthouse in the world, located at Richmond, Staten Island, will be put into commission today. It is to light the new Ambrose channel leading into New York bay, and will be visible for twenty-one miles. The light is of 300,000 candlepower.

ROUT OF PENROSE AND HIS MACHINE IS MOST COMPLETE

Keystone State Fails to "Put Colonel Out of Business."

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.—With today's returns from the field of battle in Saturday's State-wide Presidential preference primaries there is little left to point out but a list of the politically dead and wounded with which the Penrose camp is strewn. They confirm the early reports of the crushing defeat to the Penrose-Taft forces.

While the Taft managers had boastfully declared they would "put Roosevelt out of business" in this State, the Colonel is "in business" today to the tune of fifty-five national delegates as against nine for Taft. Roosevelt State delegates to the number of 39 out of 72 will control the State convention at Harrisburg on May 1. They will elect twelve national delegates-at-large to the Chicago national convention, which will bring the Roosevelt total in the State to sixty-seven, against nine accorded to President Taft.

While no complete canvass has been made, returns from almost every county in the State indicate that Gov. Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, has secured every delegate to the Democratic national convention. The twelve Democratic national delegates elected in this city are pledged to Wilson. Eleven of them were elected by the regular Democratic organization and one by the reorganizers. The total Wilson vote here was 10,761, to 1,397 for Clark.

It is apparent that the fight for control of the State was bitterly waged between the rival factions of the Democratic party in Philadelphia. Figures at hand, however, indicate that the Palmer-Guthrie faction has beaten the Guffy machine and that the party will be reorganized under the new leadership.

Y. W. C. A. TO RAISE $350,000 FOR HOME

Building to Be Erected at Southeast Corner of Thirteenth and I Streets.

More than $350,000, it was learned today, is to be raised by the Young Women's Christian Association, to be used in paying for the property at the southeast corner of Thirteenth and I streets northwest, and for erecting a home on that site. The association, through a board of trustees, has obtained title to nine lots on that corner, at a cost of $250,000. An additional $100,000 is to be raised with which to erect the building.

The by-laws of the association prohibit property being held in the name of the organization. The following trustees have been designated to have their names on the property placed in their names: S. S. Sully, chairman; William Mearns, Lawrence Lee, A. M. Lottrop, and Mrs. Frank G. Carpenter. Eldridge E. Jordan has been made chairman of the finance committee. It is hoped to raise the entire amount within thirty days.

Bryan Is Ready to Start Ohio Speeches

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 15.—William J. Bryan arrived in Columbus today from New York to begin a series of political speeches which the opponents of Harmon believe will do anything but advance the Ohio governor's candidacy for the Democratic Presidential nomination.

Mr. Bryan, whose bitter opposition to Governor Harmon's Presidential aspirations is well known, will be heard in Columbus and in several other Ohio cities during the week. The Harmon campaign manager, speaking in reference to the Bryan program, declared today they had no fear whatever that anything the Nebraska leader could say in his speeches would injure the governor in the least.
